SALEM POLICE.

From the Saleth Gazette. POLICE COURT.

Examination of Elias Ham and others, accused of cow-hiding the Rev. George B. Cheever.

This case came on yesterday for hearing before our Police Court. The following is the complaint :-

"To the Justice of the Police Court within and for the blow was about two inches from the temple.

It is the system of corporations. Under this system, Bridges have been constructed, drawing from the people in some instances (in tolls) usurious interest, ten times greater than that allowed by law. Under the same system, manufactories have been established, taxing the people 100 per cent. on articles necessary for common use. Banks also have been chartered, contrary to the constitution, most certainly, if bank bills be money: at all events, laying another tax on every thing bought, sold and consumed, equal to the whole cost of maintaining five hundred banks, with an army of bank officers, adding thereto the whole loss by broken banks, bad bills, and bills lost or destroyed. Those who labor, the Democrats, are not aware that all this falls on them: on the contrary, they are made to believe that it is all for their good; that it makes money plenty. To avoid a long explanation of these government mysteries, let me ask the good people who still believe in the doctrine of protection, whether all these contrivances make them grow rich in the same proportion as it does those who make the laws, and compose these corporations. It will not do to say, that the people make porations. It will not do to say, that the people make money faster than they used to do, even if that should be true; they must show me, that they make it as much faster as their employers now do, by the means of these corporations; otherwise, the race is not equal, and the working man will be run down, and finally subjected to the absolute control of their corporate mas-

There is no novelty in these legislative frauds; they are as old as the financial systems of the old world, where charters are granted to certain rich men, or favorites, called Farmers of Taxes. These men advance money to those improvident and heartless governments, on the tobaccoor salt tax, and collect it by their own agents; and in so doing, collect vastly more than the agents; and in so doing, collect vastly more than the government ever receives; so that the poor people are oppressed, while the government is not benefitted in Liverpool NS, 11 ds.

All this might well be expected in countries where the people are poor and igexpected in countries where the people are poor and ignorant, and rulers were all powerful, immoral, and without sympathy for their fellow creatures. But how can such a system of fraud find advocates in our country, Carrier, Brown, Mayaguez, Howard & Merry; Tenedos, Kenrick, St Jago, J J Putnam; sch Gov Shelby, Rumage, Balti. Can the people be willing to deceive themselves, and that, too, for the special benefit of others? Or, is it not true, that the people rule? Or, do they rule and yet remain ignorant of this self-destructive policy?

No. The people do not rule-money rules through these various corporations, and the people are now forging and paying for chains for their own hands. FRANKLIN.

Amongst us the fair sex possess grace and just proportions, and are generally endowed with a certain esprit and amiability of disposition. But we have not a multitude of beauties as are to be met with at every step in the northern states. Even in the Mexican republic, it is remarked that the northern women are more beautiful than those of the south; for instance, those of Sondra and New Mexico are celebrated as the most beautiful of the country. The North American ladies have fine complexions, large and brilliant eyes, well formed hands and feet, but they do not possess that elegant and voluptuous manner of walking for which our ladies are celebrated, and of whom it may be said, 'incessaæ patent deæ.' Esquire, Lawyer, and partner with Franklin Dexter, now a member of the Senate, and Attorney to the Heirs of John & Rich'd Codman:—

Rich'd Codman:—
Seeing in the Post and other newspapers, on Monday, 9th Febi835, an advertisement signed by you, cautioning all persons against believing a statement made by William Vans, under the head of a petition "that is utterly false and unfounded"—my answer to this assertion is—go into a Court of Justice, and let a Jury say if John & Richard Codman were not copartners in their transactions with me;—that I have petitioned the Legislature to grant that privilege for more than twenty years—and one thir of this time the House were almost unanimous in my favor; the Senate only, refusing to concur.

These are facts certified by Hon George Blake, District Attorney—Dan'l Davis, late Solicitor General, and Augustus Peabody—who all say they have seen judgments rendered in France, condemning John & Richard Codman as copartners, to pay my demand, that now amounts to 500,000 dollars.

These facts you must have known—which shows that there is not a sentence of truth in your statement.

THE PUBLIC.—The Morning Post of this date contains one of Wm Vans's publications (they are a class by themselves) addressed to me, and which, so far as it concerns myself personally, requires no answer. Whoever undertakes professionally, or otherwise, to oppose Mr Vans's groundless pretensions, must of course expect to be lampooned.

In respect to the cause however which I have undertaken, he repeats a statement which it may be proper to answer.—He asserts that the Hon George Blake, Daniel Davis, and Augustus Peabody, have all certified that they have seen judge.

gustus Peabody, have ALL certified that they have seen judgments rendered in France condemning John and Richard Codman As COPARTNERS to pay my demand that now amounts to $500,000."

The story of the existence of such a judgment is one of the fundamental falsehoods by which William Vans has imposed upon the credulity of the public for five and twenty years. He possesses no such judgment.

He says, indeed, that Messrs Blake, Davis and Peabody have certified that he does possess such a judgment. This statement is wHOLLY UNTRUE.

The proof of its falsehood will be found in the subjoined letter of Augustus Peadody, Esq. which I have his permission to publish; and will further appear by a comparision of the true certificate given by Mr Peabody, with the false certificate published by Mr Vans, and by careful attention to the language which Mr Vans himself attributes to Messrs Blake and Davie published exist in the supplication of Davis, published as it is, in direct connection with Mr Peadody's certificate. I first publish

"WM H. GARDINER, Esq.
Dear Sir—I have at length obtained a copy of my certificate which I gave to Mr Vans, certified by Mr Child to be correct.
A true copy of it is given below.
Yours respectfully,
AUGUSTUS PEABODY.

I next exhibit in parallel columns the true copy as sent to me by Mr Peabody, and the false copy as published by Wm Vans in a pamphlet which appeared under his name in 1832, at page 5.

TRUE CERTIFICATE, as certified by Mr Child.

FALSE CERTIFICATE, as published by Wm Vans.

Also, a copy of a judgment obtained in France on those & Richard Codman to pay

NOTES ;--I have repeatedly known and have repeatedly known those documents produced and these documents produced and

(Signed)

AUGUSTUS PEABODY." (Signed)

AUGUSTUS PEABODY."

Thus it will be seen that the true certificate as stated by Mr Peabody, (the former counsel of Mr Vans) and as now certificate of the down there as Colonel Clapp—he is about forty-five years of age—has a wife and family in Dorchester, near the Cotton Factory—is 5 feet, 9½ inches high—brown huir and dark complexion.

The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and return to prison, and all necessary charges will also be paid.

NATHANIEL WATSON.

Thus it will be seen that the true certificate as stated by Mr Peabody, (the former counsel of Mr Vans) and as now certificate of the two notes of Mr Vans) and as now certificate of the paper published by Mr Vans as Mr Peabody's certificate as stated by Mr Peabody, (the former counsel of Mr Vans) and as now certificate of the paper published by Mr Vans, and the paper published by Mr Vans as Mr Peabody's certificate of published by Mr Vans, follows Mr Peabody's thus:

"If George Blake have seen the papers and documents above."

follows Mr Peabody's thus:

"I George Blake have seen the papers and documents above stated, being well acquainted with the French language and manner documents of this kind are usually authenticated in France, have no doubt these papers are original documents.

(Signed)

That is, Mr Blake certifies that he has seen the same documents which are described by Mr Peabody, namely, notes of Biohard Codman and a judgment against him.

Richard Codman and a judgment against him

The Certificate of Daniel Davis, as published by Mr Vans, follows Mr Blake's thus-mer residence, combining all the ordinary conveniences of the best quality, being about three-fourths of an acre. For further particulars, apply to JAMES LEEDS, JR. & CO, 18 istf fill

NEATS. CAPS. GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS

Thus it will be seen that neither of the gentlemen referred to, (supposing the certificates of the two latter to be published truly) has certified to any such judgment as Mr Vans pretends; nor will any respectable and intelligent person who understands the French language so certify.

OF PENMANSHIP. Taught in the short course of 12 Lessons, one hour each, at the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Writng Academy, Joy's Building, No 81 Washington street, (Room Pupils will be received at various hours during the day and evening, to suit their convenience.

Terms are moderate, and the most complete and satisfactory improvement is guaranteed to every one.

School Masters and Teachers of Penmanship who are desir ous of adopting this unrivalled system, will be taught on terms

3_7 Mr Aiken introduced his system 10 years ago, since then he has taught over 20,000 scholars.

Terms $5 only for a course of lessons-immediate application will be safer than delays. His Excellency, the President of the United States of America, expressed his opinion on this subject as follows—"I have heard," said he, "much in favor of the American System of Penmanship, as taught by Mr Aiken, and I am of opinion from the very astonishing improvement made in a few hours, that the art is scarcely susceptible of any further improvement."

From the Essex Gazette.

Mr Aiken is a very popular teacher and writes with much facility. The specimens which we have seen, combined with the testimony of some of our friends, satisfy us that a more favorable opportunity for readily acquiring a correct style of Penmanship, rarely presents itself.

From the Dedham Register. Among the improvements that are continually introduced into our mechanic arts, the improvement in the art of penmanship by Mr Aiken, ought to be mentioned with unqualified approbation. By the assistance of his method, any person approbation. By the assistance of his method, any person however bad his writing, will acquire purity, precision and celerity in a very few lessons.

Besides numerous other gentlemen by whom he comes highly recommended, are the following, all of whom have been his patrons. G Joy's Building, up stairs.

WILLIAM H. ROGERS, most respectfully invites the attention of Merchant Tailors and the public generally, to his new invented Imperial Stocks for the Neck, which for ease and elegance very far surpass every thing of the kind hitherto manufactured in this vicinity. They are cut scientifically; the materials and manner of making are quite different from those in common use, and they may be covered many times, and retain exactly the same shape as when first made. W. H. R. requests permission to enumerate the usual faults in the common Stocks, viz. 1st, the very inferior materials used; 2d, their siting away from the chin and exposing the neck, when disagreeably clear at the his existing away from the chin and exposing the neck, when disagreeably clear at the historian and exposing the neck, when disagreeably clear at the historian and exposing the neck, when disagreeting away from the chin and exposing the neck, when disagree-ably close at the bottom; 3d, the edge at the top being un-comfortably tight, as to cause a distortion of the features by confortably light, as to cause a distortion of the features by moving the head; 4th, that of their bulging out at the sides, by moving the head a little downwards, which has a most distasteful appearance. By W. H. Rogers' deservedly admired and extensively patronized invention, all these faults are completely obviated. Naval and military gentlemen will find them the most pleasing and durable. Made to order of any texture, by the dozen or single, at the lowest cash prices. Ladies Riding Stocks beautifully made to order.

Six—It has been my wish for a considerable time, to communicate the good effect with which I have used your 'Patent Specific Ointment,' I have applied this ointment during the last four years, to every species of tumor and wound without failure to produce a cure in every intance. I consider it the most decided and efficacious remedy in all cases of tumor, be the cause what it may, and I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description. It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumor called White Swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurable, and which they decided with a system of the control of the distinguished physicians as incurable, and which they decided we without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice, effected by the use of your ointment, and the patient is in fine health, his limb affected by the tumor being restored to a perfect state of soundness. Also, that the leg of a man upwards of 30 years old, which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadfully ulcerated surface from knee to foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cared by the application of this ointment. I mention these two cases which tell under my immediate notice and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumor and of ulcers. I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumor and of uncers. I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons and every species of fresh wound. In addition to the above cases it may be proper to state what I know of its sure effects as a remedy in all cases of scrofulous tumor. A most violent and hopeless case of this description occurred in a servant of my own. It had bailled the most skilful medical treatment, but was subdued by Judkins's ointment. Dr Wm Judkins.

Sir—My son having been afflicted for five years with white swelling, and having applied every remedy recommended by the most eminent physicians within my reach, without success, I at length procured one jug of Dr Judkins's patent specific ointment, and made the application according to the directions accompanying the ointment; and state for the benefit of the afflicted, that before one jug was used, a perfect cure was effected. My son has enjoyed good health ever since. I have no doubt, that to the ointment alone he is indebted—as nothing e se was used for more than nine months before the application of the ointment. From Dr Samuel Morrill to the Proprietors of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.

I am satisfied that the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is a valuable medicine. It has been used in this place with complete success in an obstinate complaint of the lungs, attended with a severe cough, loss of voice, and the raising of much blood, which had previously resisted many approved prescriptions. After using the Balsam one week, the patient's voice returned, and he was enabled to speak audibly. This case occurred some time since, and the man is now engaged not only in active but laborious business.

in active but laborious business.

Respectfully yours &c, SAMUEL MORRILL, M. D. Concord, N. H. Jan 30, 1832.

From Mr Samuel Everett.

In October 1330, I was attacked with a cough accompanied with a severe pain in the side and difficulty of breathing. I resorted to several remedies but without effect. In January 1331, I was attended by a skilful physician, and subsequently received the advice of several others—but the disease steadily increased; the cough was incessant, attended with a bloody and offensive expectoration; my flesh was wasted, my feet swollen and my strength extremely reduced. In April my case seemed utterly hopeless—I was told by my physicians that medicine could be of no further service to me, and it was not expected by any of my friends that I could survive a month. In this situation my daughter procured a bottle of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, (which she had heard highly recommended for similar complaints,) and prevailed on me to make trial of it. Its use was attended with the most unexpected and happy result. It gave me immediate relief and one bottle effected. happy result. It gave me immediate relief and one bottle effected a cure. I have since been free from pain in the side and cough, except in the case of common colds. Boston, March 1, 1832. SAMUEL EVERETT.

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatu tence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disin terested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain at tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely and the spoonful of it, which, in the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs,

CERTIFICATE. CERTIFICATE.

This certifies that my daughter has for a long time been troubled with a bad cough, pains in her side, under the shoulder blade, and in her head; she was unable to eat any kind of food without it producing severe pains in her stomach; her sleep was very restless, attended with slight sweats, and in fact the had all the most averaged symptoms of consumption. This certifies that my daughter has for a long time been troubled with a bad cough, pains in her side, under the shoulder blade, and in her head; she was unable to eat any kind of food without it producing severe pains in her stomach; her sleep was very restless, attended with slight sweats, and in fact she had all the most aggravated symptoms of consumption.—Frequent journeys into the country had been tried without producing any effect. She was at last recommended to try the American Pulmonary Balsam, by her physician, as it had been known to afford great relief in such cases, and to our great surprise she was in a short time totally relieved from all the above symptoms. I can therefore cordially recommend to every one afflicted with any affection of the lungs or stomach, to try this medicine, as in my opinion, it will much more than rethis medicine, as in my opinion, it will much more than realize their expectations.
